

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The CDRI Secretariat uses a third-party platform to handle and register the personal data of the registrants for all our events. We can confirm that in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we take all necessary measures to safeguard the personal information of our registrants.

The data collected (from our website, event registrations and third-party platforms) will be used to send you updates from CDRI. The personal data will remain with us, unless you specifically request that you do not wish to receive information from CDRI. Write to us at icdri@cdri.world to know more.
